Mizzou has more than 20 housing options. Each one is a separate community by itself and offers unique social amenities, so you can focus on engaging with fellow students and making new friends. Our halls offer the best of both worlds: close proximity to campus and all its resources, and a community of students who share similar interests.

We offer four residential dining options. We have a variety of menu selections, and we are committed to offering healthy and diverse food options. Our dining halls are located throughout campus and are open over holiday and semester breaks. Welcome Week, as well as halls that stay open over breaks for International Student Housing, is open all year long. Mizzou has housing that opens early for international students who are coming from far away.

Mizzou students don’t sit still for long. We have more than 600 student organizations, including more than 120 student groups, that focus on social interests, academic interests, and professional development. Our wide array of 17 residence halls and the Jungle Gym feature many amenities, such as fully equipped fitness centers with Peloton bikes, strength training equipment, 10-station cardio rooms, and weight rooms. Mizzou also offers a designated student boxing-style training gym and a four-pool aquatic center. Mizzou’s 10 residence halls offer a wide range of services, facilities, and resources. The Jungle Gym, featuring a high energy, 10-station cardio gallery, and weight rooms, are fully equipped with Peloton bikes, strength training equipment, 10-station cardio rooms, and weight rooms.
